On one occasion, before our Lord s death, the disciples tried to cast out an evil spirit, and failed. Where was Jesus at the time? Had the demon taken possession of an aged person or a young one? Who asked the disciples to expel the unclean spirit? (Luke ix. 38--42.) Christ delivered the child. He also blessed the preaching of the apostles. Marching Orders.--At a party, the conversation happened to be on Christian missions in India. A young clergyman maintained that these, if not useless, were hopeless. Turning to the Duke of Wellington, he said, Your Grace spent much time in India, and I believe will confirm my views. It is impossible to make Christians of the Hindoos. The Duke of course knew well that there were many and great obstacles in India to the spread of the Gospel...
