But what explanation could he make? There was no earthly reason for his appearance in Tusculum. He talked of the West until eleven o'clock, and then he took a hesitating leave. The next day he made a weak pretense of casually passing by when he knew that Miss Euphrosyne was working in the garden; but he found it no easier to explain across the front fence. The explanation never would have been made if it had not been for Miss Euphrosyne. A curious nervousness had come over her, too, and suddenly she spoke out. Mr. Cutter--excuse me--but what has brought you here? I mean is it any thing that concerns us--or--or--Papa's affairs! I thought everything was settled--I had hoped-- There was nothing for it now but to tell the whole story, and Dick told it. I suppose you'll think we're a pack of barbarians, he said, when he had come to the end, and, of course, it's all impracticable now. But Miss Euphrosyne did not seem to be offended--only thoughtful. Can you call here to-morrow at this time, Mr. Cutter? she inquired. Miss Euphrosyne blushed faintly when Dick presented himself to hear judgement pronounced. I suppose you will think it strange, she said, but if your plan is feasible, I should wish to carry it out. Frankly, I do want to see the girls married. Clelia and Lydia and I are past the time when women think about...
