In the following pages we shall endeavor to given an outline of the work it is doing. In a general way it has to deal with the youth of the state, although quite often cases are brought to us of domestic differences and of elderly persons who are not getting the help they are entitled too from relatives, so in fact we are a sort of clearing house for troubles, and are glad to relate that by interviews with the parties directly connected we have often been able to adjust without publicity what might have resulted in legal procedure. Cases of dependent, delinquent, neglected, deserted and destitute children and cases of cruelty to animals come under the supervision of this Bureau. Montana has fifty-five counties covering 146,997 square miles, these counties are divided into districts and six deputies together with...
