Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Report of the Pennsylvania State Railroad Commission: For the Year Ending December 31st, 1911 To His Excellency, The Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania: Sir: The Pennsylvania State Railroad Commission begs to submit this report for the calendar year, 1911, and in doing so will refer only to such matters as seem to possess particular interest in connection with its work during the past year, and which the Commission deems worthy of especial consideration, and the whole in as brief a manner as the subject will permit of. The subject of telephone rates and service has been conspicuously prominent among the new complaints, and the Commission has given much attention to it, not only because of the number of the complaints, but also because of the fact that the telephone has come into such general use that it has practically become a common necessity of everyday life; and the Commission, therefore, feels the importance of securing for the public the best possible service at a cost consistent with the character of the service demanded, and equitable to all concerned. The subject is one presenting unusual difficulties, since it differs in almost every essential element from the characteristics presented by the question of rates of every other carrier, as, for example, the cost of the service increasing to the subscriber as the number of subscribers on a given exchange increases, making the rates in a large community higher than those in a small one presenting the same physical difficulties to be overcome: also the question of distance and contour of the country through which toll lines are constructed and operated; and the difference in the quality...
