Excerpt: . . . program with which you have honored me. The wholesale grocer occupies a strategic position for close cooperation with you in your great work because of his intimate relation alike to the manufacturer and the retail merchant. As an organization we have labored diligently and incessantly in behalf of pure food legislation and we stand unequivocally committed to the principle that such legislation shall be of a nationally uniform nature in that it may most efficiently conserve the welfare, health and happiness of the nation. The value to the people of the United States of the work of your great organization is beyond estimate. This association holds itself in readiness to co-operate with you along all legitimate reasonable lines in your endeavors. The columns of our official monthly publication, facts and figures are open to you at all times. In our efforts to develop and promote the highest standards and ideals in the trade life of the country, we bespeak your sympathy and co-operation. Very sincerely yours, (Signed) J. H. McLaurin, President Southern Wholesale Grocers Association: Chicago, 111. , August 2, 1915. Hon. S. J. Crumbine, Convention of Food Control Authorities, Berkeley, Cal. Accept best wishes for a successful convention which your efforts so rightly deserve. Greatly regret my inability to be present or to prepare the paper requested by you, but have been overwhelmed with business. If I have the floor, please allow me to nominate you for second term. (Signed) W. G. Sherer....
